Membership Meeting Summary November 21, 2008

Three new members were voted in:
Dawn Whitney, Shelley Wolf and Sandy Holifield.

Toni announced that Sally Tress has resigned as Training Director. The position is open.

Building item:

Work on the new roof started November 19. The major pothole in the parking lot has been patched, and the thermostats have been repaired or replaced, thanks to the efforts of Lucy McCloskey. Thermostats should be turned down before leaving the building. Also, the outside lighted sign has been repaired.

Toni announced that we will put on a Teacup Agility Trial March 20-22, 2009.

Toni announced that Dave Wray's son will take holiday pet photos at the club on December 7, from 1:00 – 4:00 pm.

There is now a locked cash box in the office. It should be used for money, checks, enrollment forms, and membership forms. Any money should be placed in an envelope (they are on top of the box), and what the money is for should be stated on the envelope.

Toni reminded everyone of our Bonus Bones policy for members. You get one Bonus Bone for every hour of volunteering (excluding teaching classes). After accumulating 20 bones, you get a $20 class for free.

Toni also reminded everyone that dogs must be kept on leash when not working, especially before and after class.

Dogs' names were exchanged for the Grab Bag at the December 8 Holiday Dinner.

HAIR OF THE DOG PARTY

The club will be open New Years Day from 9 am to Noon for any and all who would care to work your dogs or just stop by to chat and share a few morsels. If you would like to bring some comestibles to share with man or beastie, that would be OK too. This will provide a venue to start the New Year off in a positive fashion, sharing it with our four legged and two legged friends.

BRAGS

From Peter & Yvette Grandillo:

We are proud to announce that...Cammi and Dawson did very well at the Clarion Canine Obedience Club agility trial in early November. Actually, Cammi and Dawson were provided with great motivation, Bryce. Cammi and Dawson's new little brother attended his first AKC agility trial. In preparing for the trial, the parents forgot toys for Bryce to play with. Thus, we told Cammi and Dawson that they needed to do well enough to win some toys for their little brother. Or, the alternative was that Bryce would play with Cammi and Dawson ALL night long, chewing on their tails, ears, anything he could get his mouth on. Cammi and Dawson know how tiring a trial could be, and did not want their little brother annoying them all night so they competed with a new found spirit. All in Excellent B Jumpers and Standard, Cammi earned one 1st, one 2nd, and two 4th place finishes. In addition, Dawson earned two 1st, one 3rd, and one 4th place finishes. The two combined for two double-double Q's and over 175 MACH points. Cammi and Dawson did their part, and Bryce was a good little boy playing with his toys each night while his big brother and sister slept peacefully all night long curled up with their daddy. In the end, Bryce loves agility trials. He gets to go, have fun, meet other people and dogs, play, and have toys being brought to him.

P.S. We won't forget the toys in the future!

From Lucy McCloskey:

We didn't "Q" but had a great run. Toby was up and running. He put everything he had into his run and did a great job! I miscued him on the tunnel entry. Only error. Even reading the tunnel incorrectly, he was under time. I couldn't have been more proud and happy for him. We will try again on Sunday.

CONGRATULATIONS!
